OLD ROSEBUD ON EDGE

KENTUCKY DERBY FAVORITE MAKES SHOW OF HIS OPPOSITION AT LEXINGTON.

Great Gelding in Applegate Stable Wins Off by Himself in Initial Start of Season-Rain Falls and Mud Runners Get Chance.

Lexington, Ky., April 25.—Old Roschud, favorite for the Kentucky Derby, made a show of his opposition in the fourth race at one mile over a mode in the forth and the rate of the local the look of the barrier, held it all the way practically unextended and won easily by six lengths, with Christophine filling second place five lengths better than the Pallaceto Derby winner. Ivan Gardner. Surprising, the Carman Derby candidate, moved into second place is best and the look of the second place is considered by the look of the second place is considered by the beginning of the stretch racing. Milton Roblee was all out after the first five furious, Minda was entirely outclassed and Black Toncy displayed an utter dislike for the going. If it should become maddy for the running of the Kentucky Derby the Bradley pair—Black Toney and Bradley's Lepti in the barn.

Old Rosebud left a good impression in the minds of the spectators and Colonel W. E. Aplegate and trainer Frank Weir were entirely satisfied with the performance. Weir had the son of Uncle as it is could be. All of his stable connections are quite condient that Old Rosebud will win the will win much more than the $25,000 offered by Phil T. Chinn in behalf of Jefferson Livingston, and my son and Mr. Weir will still have the horse that the performance were not with the work of the property of the performance will still have the horse and the performance will be supported by the performance will be supported by the performance will be performed by the performance will be supported by the performance will be performed by the performance will be performed by the performance will be performed by the performance will b ous response from owners here.

Because of the muddy going Florin, Brownstone, Star Actress and Howdy Howdy were excused from starting.

It is the general belief among horsemen that Old Rosebud, barring mishap, will carry off first honors in the Kentucky Derby May 9 at Churchill Downs. It is also now generally conceded that the theory that he might be only a sprinter has been exploded. His showing today indicated that he can go as far and as fast as may be required of him to win the three-year-old championship.

Homespun fooded a chestnut colt by Ballot at Kirklevington Farm yesterday.

R. F. Carman has put The Turk in the stud at the Barnaby Farm and will mate him with four of his own mares and about ten outside mares if he can make arrangements for that number. Mr. Carman is looking for a small farm that he can lease with the privilege of purchase.

The officials of the meeting are Captain Thomas J. Clay, presiding judge; Garret D. Wilson, secretary and associate judge; William H. Shelley, racing secretary, handicapper and associate judge; Harry Morrissey, starter; John T. Ireland, patrol judge; John S. Wallace, clerk of the scales; Roger Sulliyan, racing bookkeeper; W. H. Laudemann, supervisor of betting; Eugene Elrod, superintendent of the pari-mutel offices; Thomas Hart Talbot, steward representing Kentucky State Racing Commission.

some good trials have laken place at Douglas Fars, by other horses than Derby candidates. The best of these were:

Brickley, William Gerst's maiden Kentucky Derby candidate, did his latest work for the big race at Douglas Park, where he is being trained in impressive style. He went a mile and an eighth, pulled up, in 1:57%, after covering the first eighth in 1:24%, three-eighths in 1:37%, it the half in :50, five-eighths in 1:29% and the mile in 1:44. He went his last mile in 1:45%. He was paced from the eighth post in the stretch to the half mile ground by his stable companion and steward representing Kentucky State Racing Commission.

The members of the Kentucky State Racing Commission made no statement as to their reasons for acting unfavorably yesterday upon the applications of jockeys Charles Borel, Roscoe Goose, Charles Gross, Robert M. Small and Arthur Wrispen. Messrs. Milton Young, J. N. Camden, Charles F. Grainger and T. H. Talbot, who were present at the meeting, were unanimous in the action taken. It appears that there has been an investigation of the riding of these boys for several months back and that their failure to get the necessary papers is due to an accumulation of incidents.

WHAT WISE GOVERNMENT OF THE SPORT HAS DONE FOR RACING IN KENTUCKY

Lexington, Ky., April 25.—It is wonderful how thoroughbred racing in Kentucky has regained its old-time prestige, due unquestionably to the wise regulation provided by the Kentucky State Racing Commission. The enactment of the law creating the commission took place in the general assembly of Kentucky on March 23, 1906. It became effective footbyild.

of Kentucky on March 23, 1906. It became effective forthwith.

From 1906 to 1912 the New Louisville Jockey Club and the Douglas Park Club, incorporated in Louisville, had their property in one holding corporation, the New Louisville Racing Association. By an agreement covering the division of profits the clubs conducted spring and fall meetings at Churchill Downs instead of having meetings at both tracks. With the commencement of 1912 the agreement expired and the two Jockey clubs applied for license to conduct independent meetings. Since then four race courses in Kentucky have been operated under the direction of the commission, as follows: Kentucky Association, at Lexington; New Louisville; Jockey Club at Louisville; Latonia Jockey Club at Latonia.

Last year the commission granted licenses and Jockey Club at Latonia.

Last year the commission granted licenses and allotted a total of 108 racing days to the clubs named. For the spring and summer season at these courses this year dates for sixty-one days' racing have been sanctioned. The commission restricts the sport to the parl-mutuel system of wagering. The distinguished feature of mutuel betting is that the public establishes the odds. Other features relate to the absolute fairness of the system and its exceptionally low percentage. It is the betting method in vogue in France, Australia and the Argentine Republic, with this difference, that in Kentucky the percentage deducted by the jockey club as far below that exacted in foreign countries. The tickets sold on the Kentucky courses range in value from $2 to $25. All of the money goes into a pool. Then it is pro-rated according to the value of the ticket, minus five per-cent. This amount is allowed the racing associations to defray expenses of operation.

then it is provided according to the various allowed the racing associations to defray expenses of operation.

Since the regulation of the thoroughbred pastime in Kentucky by the racing commission the various racing organizations of the commonwealth have had and will continue to have steadily in view the development of the turf on the highest plane of excellence. The management of the various tracks conduct the financial end of racing along lines calculated to best serve the patrons of the sport. They are content with a revenue of 10 or 12 per cent, expending the surplus in modernizing and beautifying the race track property, not forgetting to practice substantial liberality toward the horsemen by increasing purses. The natural consequence is that they have the unreserved confidence and approval of the public in general.

J. Pelham Johnston, secretary of the Kentucky State Racing Commission, has this to say:

"It is gratifying to report that the sales of thoroughbred horses indicate the improving condition of the horse-breeding industry. In 1912 one yearling sold at auction for $14,000. In one sale of sixteen sycarlings at Lexington, Ky, that season, the collection fetched an average of $3,603, the total being $57,650. In 1913 forty-five stalloins, mares and weanlings were disposed of in one sale for $198,000, at an average of $4,400. In this sale one horse brought $38,000. In another sale a few days later still another racer sold for $38,000.

"Already this season $35,000 has been refused for the Kentucky Derby favorite, Old Rosebud, a three-year-old gelding, which is the highest offer ever made in America for a horse thus unsexed. So far this spring several men have offered $20,000 for thoroughbred racers. High prices rule constantly for all horses of class.

"For the first time in the annals of Kentucky Technicky Derby and the Kentucky Handicap—each of which carries $10,000 in added money. The other features and the purse events carry exceptional values, increasing every year.

"The wisdom of the Kentucky Legislature in placing racing in this state under the regulation of a commission and the existing flourishing condition of racing in Kentucky may be judged by the numerous requests received from racing enthusiasts in other states for copies of the act authorizing the establishment of the Kentucky State Racing Commission and for copies of the commission and tor copies of the commission and for copies of the commission and for copies of the commission's work. Application for copies of the law have been received from Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Maryland, Virginia, South Carolina, Indiana, Illinois, Missouri, Tennessee, Lousiana, Montana, Iltah, Colorado, Nevada, Washington, California and Porto Rico. Hon, Weisburg, of San Juan, on Angust 30, wrote to me as follows:

"I take pleasure in enforming you that the law creating the Kentucky State Racing Commission law has been enacted into law by the Legislative Assembly of Porto Rico. The copy of the law which you were kind enough to send me several months ago I delivered to the members of the legislature. When the matter came up in connection with the Insular Fair Grounds, a feature of which is the race track, they embodied the act in toto in the Fair law."

"Although the Kentucky act may not, in every

When the matter came up in connection with the Insular Fair Grounds, a feature of which is the race track, they embodied the act in toto in the Fair law."

"Although the Kentucky act may not, in every instance, be enacted elsewhere without change, as was done in Porto Rico, it has served and is serving as a pattern for all similar legislation in the United States. It is believed that in this way racing will be re-established throughout the Union, thus bringing about great benefit to the thoroughbred industry."

The Kentucky State Racing Commission consists of five persons appointed by the governor, three of whom shall be breeders and raisers of thoroughbred stock. No two of them are allowed to be members of the same racing association. The members of the commission hold their term of office for four years. The members appoint their own secretary. The salary of the secretary is $1,200 per year and this is paid by the racing associations of Kentucky. The members of the commission is composed of Milton Young, chairman; T. H. Talbot, vice-chairman; George J. Long, Charles F. Grainger and J. N. Camden. The office of the commission is at Lexington, Kentucky.

While the racing commission has proved a real salvation to thoroughbred racing in Kentucky there is yet another contributing feature to the healthy condition in which the sport finds itself. Reference is made to the pari-mutuel method of betting. This system has been so perfected in Kentucky, reaching that degree of unqualified fairness, that today it is more popular with the speculative public than bookmarking ever was.

The revival of pari-mutuels in America was brought about by Charles F. Grainger, president of the New Louisville Jockey Club, M. J. Winn, general manager of that club, and that organization's presiding judge, Charles F. Price. They gave the system careful thought and applied to it those methods employed in banking houses to insure accuracy. They devised and installed every mechanical device working to the same end, including speed. They employe also an eligible to the Kentucky Derby, cut in with him and finished out the trial. In both cases he beat his companions. Brickley will be taken to Lexington and will start there Tuesday in a maiden race for three-year-olds at six furlongs. If he races creditably in his maiden start, as is anticipated, he may be given another race there before he is race for three-year-olds at six furlongs. If he races creditably in his maiden start, as is anticipated, he may be given another race there before he is brought here to start in the Derby on Saturday, May 9. He is not eligible to the Blue Grass Stakes, Brickley was fired last year for ankle trouble and when again put in training as a two-year-old was taken sick. This explains why the son of Ort Wells never taced at that age. The Scold, dam of Brickley, is a daughter of Meddler and was a three-year-old winner. She is out of Zantippa, by Onondaga, and she in turn out of Sister Monica, by Springbok, dam of that great race horse and sire, Pessara, and a sister to the Latonia Derby winner, Audrain. It is the famous Dance family and, being by a great race horse like Ort Wells, Mr. Gerst's maiden eligible to Churchill Downs' big race is surely well enough bred to be a Derby winner. Trainer Jack Adkins, who has Buckhorn, Helen Barbee and other horses owned by R. J. Mackenzie under his care at Douglas Park, is a great admirer of Mr. Gerst's colt and he is one turfman who would not consider it an unusual happening if Brickley should win the Kentucky Derby this spring. One thing is certain, if he trains on for he big race with as much improvement as he has shown in his work since brought here from Tennessee, this good-looking three-year-old will have a winning chance in the big event, though his admirers would rather see him retain the maiden allowance, which he is likely to lose the first time he starts at Lexington, because he will be a hard horse to beat in any maiden race. His vast improvement since he arrived here some three weeks ago explains why as good a judge as Jack Adkins is sweet on him.

His vast improvement since he arrived here some three weeks ago explains why as good a judge as Jack Adkins is sweet on him.

Charles F. Price, presiding steward of the New Louisville Jockey Club and presiding judge at the Douglas Park and Latonia tracks, has arrived home from Florida, where he spent several weeks after he left Juarez last month. He was accompanied here by G. M. Hendrie. On their way north they visited W. O. Parmer, secretary of the Windsor Jockey Club, at the latter's Edenwold Farm, near Nashville, Tenn, Mr. Hendrie made it known while here that he has purchased a half interest in the broodmares, yearlings and other young theroughbred stock at Edonwold Farm. There are eleven yearlings there this season, made up of six colts and five fillies. Among the sucklings is a brother to Mr. Hendrie's noted four year-old, Great Britain. This youngster, unlike his brother, is a bay in color.

Arrogance, in James MacManus' stable, is training as if she is going to be much on the order in track work of her brother Presumption, which always has been a member of the MacManus string. So far her owner has not gone fast enough with the filly to be aware of her rear merit, but she looks like a youngster that is sure to make good in her races. She is an eligible to the Debutante Stakes, in which Mr. MacManus also has two other promising fillies engaged, they being Gilt Edge and Menlo Park, the latter a half-sister to that useful racer, Busy. The best-liked colt of this age in the California turfman's stable this spring is Chesterton, a son of The Scribe, and an eligible to the Bashford Manor Stakes and other two-year-old events. Lion's Share of Purses at Meeting.

Havre de Grace, Md., April 25.—Showery weather and a wet track proved drawbacks to the sport here this afternoon. The change in track conditions resulted in numerous withdrawals, the fields being materially reduced by scratches. The Holland stable was again conspicuously successful when Gordon won the opener. Haversack the fifth and Garl the feature race—the Belair Handicap. The latter was a dash of three-quarters of a mile, $1,000 added. There were eleven carded, five of which were withdrawn, while one was added, Capt. Walker scratching Bard of Hope and adding Ambrose. The latter showed a good performance in finishing second after breaking slowly and being outrant to the stretch turn.

Gordon escaped a run-up after he won, but C. C. Smithson was on hand after Haversack won and boosted her from $1,000 to $1,300. She was retained.

The best finish of the afternoon came with the running of the second race, a half mile dash for two-year-olds. Jim Savage and Jesse Jr. raced like a team for the entire trip and when they passed the judges it was impossible to tell from the grandstand which had won. The official placing gave the race to Jim Savage. It was a case of Taplin putting it over McCahey when it came to a finish. With riders reversed, the result would have been different. Thirty-five layers cut in this afternoon, among the newcomers being Rod McMahon and Horace Paul. Brynlimah came out of his last race with a spread foot, which will probably cause him to be an absence until the Belmont Park meeting begins. Harry Breivogel was a visitor at the track this afternoon. He will meet Matt. J. Winn in Baltimore tomorrow and with an architect they will visit the Laurel track to plan for the building of a clubhouse and several modern stables. It is the intention to make many improvements in the Laurel track before the opening of the fall meeting, including the enlarging of the tunnel entrances from the Baltimore and Ohlo tracks.

Herbert Temple made his first visit to the track this a

IMPORTANT ARRIVALS AT WOODBINE.

Toronto, Ont., April 25.—The horses in training at Woodbine received some important additions when the stables owned by Hon. J. S. Hendrie, of Hamilton, and Harry Giddings, of Cedar Grove Farm, Onkville, took up their quarters at the track. The new-comers are of particular interest inasmuch as they include the public favorite and the second choice for the King's Plate, Mr. Giddings' Beehive and Col. Hendrie's Slipper Day, Both Jots have wintered well, and are ready for strong track work.

Col. Hendrie has seven-two-year-olds from which to work out material for next year's Plate, as well as for the races for Canadian-bred youngsters that are now so popular since the winning of them does not disquality for the succeeding Plate. Mr. Giddings brought down only three youngsters, one of them by the Hendrie stallion Martimas. Col. Hendrie also went outside the Valley Farm for new blood in the case of one of bis. Red Fire being a son of Messrs. Dyment's imported horse, Red Fox II. His dam is Saimonese, which Col. Hendrie led into the winner's paddock after the Plate of 1999. CAPTAIN CASSATT OFFERS HIS SERVICES.

Philadelphia, Pa., April 25.—Capt. Edward R. Cassatt, son of the former president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, formerly an officer in the regular army and now prominent in racing and horse show circles, has volunteered his services to the government in connection with the Mexican crisis. He was told that his proffer would be accepted the moment it was decided to call ont volunteer troops for services in Mexico. It is more than probable that in the event of volunteers being called out Captain Cassatt will be offered the command of the Pennsylvania Rough Riders, now being organized in this city. As originally planned, it was to include University of Pennsylvania students only, but the scope of the movement has been widened to include policemen who formerly served in the regular United States cavalry and in fact all men between 18 and 25 who know how to ride.

man is training his own horses this spring and no stable at the Downs looks better, though he is going slowly with most of the members of his band with the exception of his two Kentucky Derby candidates, Belloc and Robinetta, the latter being also eligible to the Kentucky Oaks. One old horse in the stable that looks unusually well this spring is Star O'Ryan, which, as the season advances, will do some creditable racing in long-distance selling races beyonnd a question of doubt. Mr. MacManus has let his stable jeckey, J. Henry, go to Lexington to ride during the meeting now going on there. He went in care of his father, trainer Henry, and will take mounts he selects aside from the horses of trainer O. A. Bianchi, who will have first call on his services during the meeting.

Presumption, one of the most consistent of performers on the Kentucky tracks for the last three seasons, looks exceedingly well this spring and promises to be as reliable as a five-year-old as he has ever been when once in racing condition. He is one performer that has the unique distinction of having beaten the best two-year-olds of his year and still was never able to win a stake race as a two-year-old. Mr. MacManus is a great admirer of R. F. Carman's Kentucky Derby winner, Meridian, and believes him to be one of the brightest prospect of horses still in training for success as a sire. Meridian is one of the best looking horses alive. James O'Leary, who holds a position under Secretary Lyman H. Davis, of the New Louisville Jockey Club, and also under Secretary Ed Jasper, of the the Jockey Club Juarez, has arrived here to take up his duties for the coming spring meeting at the Downs. He left El Paso, Tex., about two weeks ago and has been on a visit east. He reports that Capt. W. H. Fenchler, treasurer of the Jockey Club Juarez course, will be here again this season for the running of the Kentucky Derby and will remain during most of the meeting at the Downs this spring.

Juarez course, will be here again this season for the running of the Kentucky Derby and will remain during most of the meeting at the Downs this spring.

G. M. Hendrie has some likely two-year-olds in training with his big stable of older horses in the care of trainer John Walters, now quartered at Douglas Park. The bay colt by Voter-Kinrose has been named Scrutineer by Mr. Hendrie, while the bay colt by Galveston—Sweet Lavender will race under the name of Rancher. The chestnut filly by Dr. Boots—Valerina, in the Hendrie string, is named Vinland, while the bay filly by The Commoner—Alpaca is called Dimity. The Kentucky Handicap candidate, Great Britain, in the Hendrie string, is named Vinland, while the bay filly by The Commoner—Alpaca is called Dimity. The Kentucky Handicap candidate, Great Britain, in the Hendrie stable, could bardly look better, but trainer Walters would feel better if he were more advanced in training. He has always been slow in coming around to form early in the year. Mr. Hendrie also has in training in Canada several three-year-olds which are eligible to the races run in the Dominion for Canadian-bred horses, One of these is Stony Creek, a bay gelding by David Garrick—Springwells, another the bay filly, Martena, by Martimas—Placena, while another is the bay filly, Martola, by Martimas—Losioia. The latter and Martena are eligible to the Maple Leaf Stakes at Toronto this spring, and Martena and Stony Creek are eligible to the Breeders' Stakes, also to be run at the first Toronto meeting. Mr. Hendrie has no King's Plate candidate this season.

A horse in his barn that is training well this spring, and the four-year-old, Rifle Brigade, also looks as if he will do some good racing again this season.

J. U. Strode has nine horses in training at Douglas Park, his string consisting, among others, of Toddiing, Amoret, Jabot, Pluvious, Holton, Billie Burke and Trovato. Strode's string shipped well here from Norfolk.

J. W. Schorr shipped four horses to Lexington to race. Two of these are Lindenthal

NOTES OF THE TURF.

Hearts of Oak will be pointed for the Toronto Cupds spring.

Jockeys Harry Gray and W. Stephenson are with the Giddings stable at Woodbine.

George Richings has arrived at Woodbine with Yorkville, The Idol and Chad Buford. The Kentucky State Racing Commission has approved the usual list of officials for the Douglas Park and Latonia meetings.

Jockey Phil Goldstein has joined the riding forces of the Thornellife Stable of Robert Davies, which Henry McDaniel is training at Toronto.

Rudolfo is reported to be doing well in preparation for the Kentucky Handicap at Louisville. He recently worked a mile in 1:48, following a five furiong move under restraint in 1:07%.

A. A. Gregg has arrived at Delorimier Park from El Paso with four horses that are to be raced at the spring meeting of the Montreal Jockey Club. The horses are Jewel of Asia, Singletoe, Little Birdie and Garter.

Birdie and Garter.

Among the old-timers seen every day at the Havre de Grace track is Dave Gideon, who in his time has bred and owned some of the best race horses in the annals of the American turf. Mr. Gideon still takes a lively interest in the sport and has a box reserved for the meeting.

The Kentucky State Racing Commission has referred to the various racing associations under its purisdiction the petition of a number of trainers and owners for the barring of the professional clocker under a strict enforcement of rule 179 relative to touts. The Kentucky Association directors have deferred action until a full board passes upon the question.

In order to avoid conflict with the Electric Park meeting the Marlboro meeting dates probably will be revised. It is likely that the Marlboro meeting will follow that at Electric Park. The new management of the Marlboro track plan to convert it into a regulation mile track during the summer, with the idea of seeking from the Jockey Club the dates that formerly have fallen to Norfolk.

AN OFFERING OF CHOICE YEARLINGS.

AN OFFERING OF CHOICE YEARLINGS.

The late James R, Keene attained a success with his racing stable that was never equalled on the turf by any other man. From 1905 to 1998 inclusive, his stable headed the list of winners in America and in these four years won the enormous total of $1,063,927, an average of over a quarter of a million dollars each season. This was accomplished with horses of his own breeding and, in addition, other stables were racing Castleton-bred horses, whose winnings totaled many thousands more of dollars. This unparaleled success was due to the superiority of the stallions and mares that comprised his breeding establishment. Now comes the time when the general racing public has the opportunity to secure horses of this breeding, for every yearling bred on the shares by the late Mr. Keene will be sold at auction at Lexington, Ky., May 6. They are by such sires as Ben Brush, Delhi, Disguise, Hippodrome, Superman, Sweep, Ultimus, Voter and Peter Pan, and are from matrons that the astute breeders picked out from their entire studs to mate with these celebrated stallions. "The Forty and Four." a catalog of premier yearlings, will be mailed to any address upon application to The Kentucky Sales Co., Lexington, Ky., and as these are all partnership yearlings, they must be sold for a division.
